

RCHP Statement of Inclusion

The Reformed Church of Highland Park (RCHP) is a welcoming and affirming congregation of the Reformed Church in America which affirms the gifts and ministries of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender members, and shall keep faith with this affirmation in carrying out its responsibilities. We hope that all members, in the spirit of Christ's teachings and example, will treat each other in regards to sexual orientation as in all other matters, with care, respect, faithfulness and love. We are all called to the same sexual ethic of mutuality, respect and faithfulness, whatever our sexual orientation, and we ask that all members adhere to this shared ethic.

For you are ALL children of God through faith in Jesus Christ.

Gal 3:26

For there is no distinction..., for the same
Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him.

Rom. 10:12

ROOM FOR ALL CHRISTIAN CAMP: YOUTH IN SEARCH OF GOD

Exploring faith and self-identity
through the performing and visual arts

God shows no partiality. But in every nation whoever obeys God and works righteousness is accepted... Acts 10:34-35

Staff

Smart, funny, informative -- like Rachel Maddow and Jon Stewart with guitars. emma's revolution is the award-winning, activist musicians Pat Humphries & Sandy O. Known to motivate and inspire, bring people to tears and back to laughter, their music has been sung for the Dalai Lama, praised by Pete Seeger and recorded by Holly Near. Touring over 200 days a year, emma's revolution has performed at thousands of events around the world using the power of music to promote peace and justice, womens, LGBT, human rights, labor, and environmental issues.

"Nobody teaches songwriting better than Sandy O and Pat Humphries. They kickstart the beginner, challenge the veteran, and inspire personal expression. I'm pretty sure they could squeeze a good song out of a grapefruit." --Award-winning, Canadian performer Debbie Carrol

Danny DeLorenzo has been a professional filmmaker for over 20 years. He is a managing partner and producer/director for Second Son Productions, which has produced feature films, commercials, documentaries and music videos. Two recent projects, ROMA and Images Of Umbria, both filmed on location in Italy, are distributed worldwide through Amazon.com.

Kyle Schickner has been directing independent films since 1995 when he closed down his Off Off Broadway theater company to move to Los Angeles. Some of the talent he has worked with include seasoned veterans like Oscar nominated actress and icon Ruby Dee, (American Gangster, A Raisin in the Sun) Ally Sheedy (Breakfast Club, High Art), Chelsea Handler, Maxine Bahns (Brothers McMullen, She's the One) Charles Robinson (Night Court) Berlinda Tolbert (The Jeffersons) Lane Davies (Santa Barbara), and even renowned acting coach Joanne Baron has been an outspoken activist and advocate for Bisexual rights, visibility and acceptance both in the mainstream world as well as the LGBT community.
